

Arizona 2000 Regular Session

41-2033. Community based relationship skills high school pilot program; program termination
(Rpld. 9/1/09)

A. School districts may apply to participate or may complete an application to continue in the community based relationship skills high school pilot program as provided in this section for any fiscal year by submitting by April 15 a program proposal or an application to continue the program to the marriage and communication skills commission established by section 41-2031. The marriage and communication skills commission shall submit the approved applications to the department. The department shall approve applications submitted by the marriage and communication skills commission established by section 41-2031. New applicants are restricted to unencumbered monies that have been appropriated in previous fiscal years or monies appropriated to expand the program.

B. A program proposal shall contain:

1. A plan for implementing a relationship skills program or a plan that demonstrates the existence of a relationship skills program.
2. A plan to adopt a relationship skills curriculum that emphasizes relationship skills, including communication and negotiation skills, domestic violence prevention and marriage preparation.
3. A description of any model curricula that the school district plans to provide relationship skills. A curriculum shall not provide information for or promote marriages that violate section 25-101.

C. School districts shall spend monies received under this program to implement the approved plans.

D. The program established by this section ends on September 1, 2009, pursuant to section 41-3102.
