

Our curriculum is both general and flexible. We aim to produce fast learners rather than specialists. We recognize that Tepper graduates may work in areas that do not even exist today, so we prepare them with skills for the future. Our track specialties are rated among the best business undergraduate programs in the world.

Following are the top ten reasons to apply:

1. Experience both breadth AND depth at Carnegie Mellon
2. Take advantage of small class sizes: a Tepper trademark!
3. Learn from distinguished professors teaching at every level
4. Draw upon our consistently strong reputation in all fields
5. Grow through community involvement and social responsibility
6. Focus on professional and career development
7. Develop leadership skills through Tepper club activities
8. Prepare for your Masters or Ph.D.
9. See the world by studying abroad
10. Build strong connections through Tepper for life.
